

ON FOCUS

The Autumn in the Centre continues with the conduction of seminars under project Integrated Trainings for the Administration in Institutions, working on the Labour Market and in the Social Sphere. The trainings' topics are strictly specialized to enhance knowledge and skills of the employees of the relevant administrations. In September will be conduct a seminar dedicated to the institute of adoption and the role of social works in the preparation, monitoring and following evaluation of the process. In the beginning of October a seminar on Powers and Functions of the Executive Agency General Labour Inspectorate (EA GLI) on the Implementation of Legislation, Governing the Employment of Foreigners in the Republic of Bulgaria is in preparation.

Following all anti-epidemic measures continues conduction of the trainings under National Paction Plan for Employment for 2020. In September starts courses for gaining professional qualification under specialty Word Processing as well as the new specialty in the CHRDR's portfolio Economy and Management.

The interview in the present bulletin is dedicated to the specific of the preparation of trainings for unemployed people for the next training year. We interviewed Mrs. Lina Kostadinova, Chief Methodist long-term expert in the Centre.